Date of next review:	November 2026
Review cycle	Annual
Policy owner:	Headteacher
Location of policy	School website
Policy control record updated by Clerk to Governors	Yes
Date of last amendments	November 2025

All Saints Infants School (ASIS) has a contract with Anthem Trust for the provision of Data Protection Officer services. The School therefore follows the Trust's policies and procedures in respect of data protection and the retention of records.

This policy therefore applies to all records created, received, or maintained by all ASIS permanent and temporary staff while carrying out their functions. It also includes ASIS governors, other volunteers, contractors, agents, and representatives working for or on behalf of ASIS. The ASIS Governing Body has delegated overall responsibility for the implementation of this policy and the management of school records to the Headteacher. The Headteacher delegates day-to-day responsibility to the School's Data Protection Lead, the ASIS Office Manager, who is supported by the Trust's Data Protection Officer and Deputy Data Protection Officer as part of the contract between the School and Anthem Trust.

This policy is available on the School's website.

Privacy notice for parents and carers – use of your personal data

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust and our schools use any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing ‘privacy notices’ (sometimes called ‘fair processing notices’) to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about parents and carers of students at our schools.

Anthem Schools Trust is the ‘data controller’ for the purposes of UK data protection law.

Our Trust Data Protection Officer is Claire Pannell. We also have school data protection leads at each school (see ‘Contact us’ below).

The personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details and contact preferences (such as your name, address, email address and telephone numbers)
- Bank details
- Details of your family circumstances
- Details of any safeguarding information including court orders or professional involvement
- Records of your correspondence and contact with us
- Details of any complaints you have made
- Information about your use of our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers)

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about you that falls into ‘special categories’ of more sensitive personal data. This includes, but is not restricted to, information about:

- Information about any health conditions you have that we need to be aware of
- Photographs and CCTV images captured in school
- For our faith schools only: Your religion, as part of our admission arrangements

We may also hold data about you that we have received from other organisations, including other schools and local authorities.

Why we use this data

We collect and use the data listed above to:

- Report to you on your child’s attainment and progress (directly or via a third party)

- Keep you informed about the running of the school (such as emergency closures) and events
- Process payments for school services and clubs
- Provide education
- Provide appropriate pastoral care
- Protect student welfare
- Administer admissions waiting lists
- Assess the quality of our services
- Carry out research
- Comply with our legal and statutory obligations
- Make sure our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers) are used appropriately, legally and safely

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we have collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal information without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

Use of your personal data for marketing purposes

Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that may be of interest to you.

You can withdraw consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by clicking on the 'Unsubscribe' link at the bottom of any such communication, or by contacting us (see 'Contact us' below).

Use of your personal data in automated decision making and profiling

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

Use of your personal data for filtering and monitoring purposes

Whilst your child(ren) is/are in our school, we may monitor your use of our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers). We do this so that we can:

- Comply with health and safety and other legal obligations
- Comply with our policies (e.g. Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy, Acceptable Use agreement) and our legal obligations
- Keep our network(s) and devices safe from unauthorised access, and prevent malicious software from harming our network(s)
- Protect your child's welfare

Our lawful basis for using this data

Our lawful bases for processing your personal data for the purposes listed above will be one or more of the following:

- Public task
- Legal obligation
- Consent
- Vital interests
- To fulfil a contract
- Legitimate interests

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Our basis for using special category data

For 'special category' data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one of the following conditions for processing as set out in UK data protection law:

- We have obtained your explicit consent to use your personal data in a certain way
- We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to process it for health or social care purposes, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health or social work professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest

For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in UK data protection law. Conditions include:

- We have obtained your consent to use it in a specific way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for, or in connection with, legal proceedings, to obtain legal advice, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal rights
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation

Collecting this data

We will only collect and use your data when the law allows us to (as detailed above).

While the majority of information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

Most of the data we hold about you will come from you, but we may also hold data about you from:

- Local authorities
- Government departments or agencies
- Your children
- Police forces, courts, tribunals
- Other schools and trusts

How we store this data

We keep personal information about you while your child is attending our school. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at our school if this is necessary to comply with our legal obligations or to meet our regulatory requirements. Our Retaining Records Policy, available on request, sets out how long we keep information about parents and carers.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer have a legal requirement to retain it.

Who we share data with

We do not share information about you with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with UK data protection law), we may share personal information about you with:

- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and information about exclusions
- Government departments or agencies
- Department for Education
- Our regulator, Ofsted
- Suppliers and service providers including but not limited to catering suppliers, school trip providers, third party education resources, apps and providers
- Financial organisations
- Our auditors
- Survey and research organisations
- Health authorities
- Security organisations
- Health and social welfare organisations
- Professional advisers and consultants

- Charities and voluntary organisations
- Police forces, courts, tribunals

Transferring data internationally

We may share personal information about you with the following international third parties, where different data protection legislation applies:

- Other schools or educational establishments
- Government departments or agencies
- Security organisations
- App or cloud server providers

Where we transfer your personal data to a third-party country or territory, we will do so in accordance with UK data protection law.

In cases where we have to set up safeguarding arrangements to complete this transfer, you can get a copy of these arrangements by contacting us.

How to access personal information that we hold about you

You have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that we hold about you.

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

For further information on making a subject access request please refer to the Data Protection Policy. If you would like to make a request, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

Your other rights regarding your data

Under UK data protection law, you have certain rights regarding how your personal data is used and kept safe. For example, you have the right to:

- Object to our use of your personal data where it is likely to cause, or is causing damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to and challenge the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected or blocked
- In certain circumstances, have the personal data we hold about you deleted or destroyed, or restrict its processing
- Withdraw your consent, where you previously provided it for the collection, processing and transfer of your personal data for a specific purpose
- In certain circumstances, be notified of a data breach
- Make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

We may refuse your information rights request for legitimate reasons, which depend on why we are processing it. Some rights may not apply in these circumstances:

- Your right to have all personal data deleted or destroyed doesn't apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation or public task
- Your right to receive a copy of your personal data, or have your personal data transmitted to another controller, does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation, vital interests, public task or legitimate interests
- Right to object to use of your private data doesn't apply when the lawful basis for processing is contract, legal obligation or vital interests. And if the lawful basis is consent, you don't have the right to object, but you have the right to withdraw consent.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

If you have any concerns or wish to make a complaint about data protection, please contact your school data protection lead or our Trust data protection officer in the first instance.

You can also make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>
- Call 0303 123 1113.
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.

Recording of telephone calls

All telephone calls with Anthem schools may be recorded for training, quality assurance and establishment of facts purposes. We have notices on our websites, in our Data Protection policy and in all our privacy notices to set this out. We also have included information about this on the automatic voice message for each school and the Trust. Personal data obtained on calls is collected, stored and processed in accordance with data protection legislation as set out in our Data Protection policy.

Contact us

If you have any questions, concerns, or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, please contact the school data protection lead (see Appendix 2 of our Data Protection Policy) or our Trust Data Protection Officer:

Claire Pannell at cpannell@anthemtrust.uk, 0333 996 3030.

The school data protection leads have day-to-day responsibility for data protection issues in schools.
